WHEREAS, it has come to the attention of the Hamilton County Judiciary that during 2013, Hamilton County attorneys donated more than 300 hours to pro bono representation through District 6 Access to Justice.

WHEREAS, in light of this significant dedication of time, the Hamilton County Judiciary commends the following attorneys for their pro bono work during 2013 as reported to District 6 Access to Justice: Ashley Balicki, Robert Becker, Jaimie Cairns, Amy Carson, Wendy Clar, Aaron Culp, Eric Douthit , Rebecca Eimerman, Marjonie Gabriel, Amy Gillen, Jeff Hartling, Megan Lewis, Cynthia Marcus, John Maurovich, Bill Merrill, Detra Mills, Gloria Mitchell, Carolyn Nichols, Anne Poindexter, Melanie Reichert, Joshua Robertson, Robert Shive, Erika N. WHEREAS, the Hamilton County Judiciary strongly endorses pro bono representation and encourages all members of the Hamilton County Bar to take on at least one pro bono case per year; and, to spend a half day per year at the Government & Judicial Center serving as the “lawyer of the day” to talk with persons who may need pro bono services.

WHEREAS, the Hamilton County Judiciary anticipates that there will be an increased participation in pro bono representation by the Hamilton County Bar, when identified as a pro bono matter, the courts will give priority on the docket for scheduling such cases to include calling these cases first when there are multiple hearings scheduled at the same time.
